MARKET COMMENTARY

After gaining some strength in last session, Indian stock markets once again turned lower and finished the Friday's session on a dull note, marginally below the neutral line as investors at large remained reluctant to build on long positions amid weak trade in regional markets. The session largely remained characterized by choppiness as the aimless indices moved only slowly towards the previous closing levels after the early decline. Sentiments were undermined by the SBI's report indicating that manufacturing growth is likely to remain flat and factory output may even continue to remain in the negative territory in the coming months. For today's trade Nifty likely to trade in the range between 8725 – 8755 in the upper side and 8675 – 8665 in the lower side.
