NIFTY CHART

MARKET COMMENTARY

Indian equity benchmarks traded on a firm note throughout the session and ended in green ahead of inflation data and FOMC policy outcome. The Fed is widely expected to raise interest rates by a quarter percentage point, its first for this year, when it announces its decision on Wednesday. Such an outcome could hit Indian shares given that markets are already under pressure over worries that demonetization would hurt the economy bigger than expected. The market traded slightly in green in early deals on fresh buying by domestic investors. For today's trade Nifty likely to trade in the range between 8235 – 8245 in the upper side and 8215 – 8195 in the lower side.

- Crude oil range->$48 to $58.
 - ➤ Stocks Resume Advance as Fed Rate Hike Looms: Global stocks advanced while the dollar was little changed amid optimism that the Federal Reserve's expected rate increase signals confidence that the economy is strengthening. Italian equities and bonds surged on bank recapitalization plans.
 - Speculation that fiscal easing in the U.S. will drive growth is pushing investors into stocks as governments take the baton from central banks that are starting to scale back a decade of stimulus.  - ➤ Dollar steadies as pre-Fed nerves dominate: - The dollar steadied against the yen and euro on Tuesday after its weakest day in a week, with markets still uneasy that a Federal Reserve meeting ending on Wednesday may provoke more investors to cash in the greenback's recent gains.
 - Oil prices slip on profit taking after rally: - Oil prices slipped lower on Tuesday as investors took profits following a powerful rally that saw prices hit the highest levels since mid-2015 after major producers reached a deal to scale back output.
 - Pederal Reserve meeting: Gold prices slipped lower on Tuesday as investors turned their attention to the outcome of the Federal Reserve's two-day meeting on Wednesday as expectations for an interest rate increase continued to weigh on the precious metal.
